SongFight.org Presents... on December 18, 2004

SAN FRANCISCO, CA - December 18, 2004 - The final SongFight.org Presents... show of 2004, will be held at the Accordion event space in San Francisco on Saturday, December 18, 2004 starting at 8:00 p.m. The host of SongFight.org Presents... is Ken Mahru, the one man dynamo of Song Fight band Ken's Super Duper Band 'n Stuff. According to Ken, the live event is an outgrowth of the ongoing activity at www.songfight.org which has attracted the attention of many web portals, entertainment guides, etc., as well as a mention in the February 2002 issue of SPIN magazine.

Every week, songwriters and performers compete in the competition at www.songfight.org, by writing, recording, and submitting their compositions in response to the titles posted there. Songs are posted, voted on, and discussed on a lively bulletin board, and the cycle repeats the next week.

Participating local bands include sonofsupercar, Loyalty Day, Melody Generator, Ken and the New Incredibles, and the Beforees. Several acts from out of town will appear as well, including Abecedarian (Los Angeles) and the Landfills (Ohio). In addition to material previously presented at songfight.org, bands will play whatever they want.

The show will be located at 382 Bayshore Blvd., between Cortland and Oakdale streets in San Francisco, CA. Cost of the show is $5 and all ages.
